I help many constituents who are having problems with their Social Security benefits and/or eligibility. If you have tried to resolve a problem with the Social Security Administration and have run into problems, I might be able to help. Although I cannot order the agency to decide a matter in your favor or circumvent regulations, I can ensure that your case is treated fairly.

For more information or answers to frequently asked questions on including retirement benefits, the Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program, and disability benefits, please visits their official website: www.ssa.gov .

If you cannot find the information you need or would like assistance, please contact my office by completing the short Casework Inquiry Form .
